

USED BOOK CONSIGNMENT CONTRACT

For the purpose of this contract, the “seller” is defined as the person consigning the book(s) with the North Oshawa Campus Tuck Shop location (herein “the Tuck Shop”).

Consigned books will be held in the Tuck Shop for one year. The Tuck Shop is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged books. You will be selling your books at the Tuck Shop at your own risk. The seller will not be notified when their book has been sold. It is the seller’s responsibility to email or visit the Tuck Shop to check the status of the consigned book(s).

Once a book is sold, the seller receives 75% of the profits. The Tuck Shop keeps a 25% commission. The money will be available for pick up from the Tuck Shop in the form of cash or cheque. The Tuck Shop reserves the right to decide on the payment method. Cheques may take up to one week to process. Money must be collected within six months of the book being sold. In order to receive payment for a sold book, the seller must present government issued photo ID.

Unsold books will be removed from the shelf after one year. The seller will have one month to collect the book or it will become the property of the Tuck Shop and donated or disposed of. Should the seller wish to extend the consignment period, they must contact the Tuck Shop via email or in person prior to the consignment period expiring.

In order to provide the best selection of books to our customers, the Tuck Shop does not consign outdated textbook editions. If a book is found to be out-of-date during the consignment period, the seller will be asked to pick up the book. The seller must provide current contact information to the Tuck Shop. The seller will have 30 days to pick up their book. Should the seller fail to pick up the book by the end of the 30 days, the book will become property of the Tuck Shop.

Please confirm below that you have read, understood, and comply with the provisions of this contract.
